Mountain 2 (8 inn.): North Cobb scored four runs in the top of eighth inning to down Kennesaw Mountain in a key Region 4AAAAAA matchup Tuesday.

The Lady Warriors (18-4, 8-2) sent eight batters to the plate in the frame and scored all four runs with one out. The victory pushed North Cobb closer to playing for the region championship, while the Lady Mustangs (13-9, 5-4) saw their title hopes dimmed.

Kennesaw Mountain took a 1-0 first-inning lead on Boo Huddleston's RBI.

Iman Muhammad, who was 2-for-4 and scored twice, singled in the sixth for North Cobb. After she moved to second on a sacrifice bunt, Taylor Krause, who batted 2-for-3 with a run scored and two RBIs, tripled to score Muhammad with the tying run.

Casey Page was 2-for-3 with an RBI for North Cobb. Kayla Trumbull also had an RBI.

Olivia Mould (11-2) gave up two unearned runs on four hits for the complete-game victory. She also had an RBI.

Madi Lewis had a sacrifice fly for the Lady Mustangs.

North Cobb will host its Warrior Classic on Friday and Saturday. Kennesaw Mountain is at Cambridge today.
